Marketing Remarks

Welcome home to this classic property in Seattle's sought-after Green Lake neighborhood! This versatile home offers a blend of modern updates while thoughtfully maintaining its historic character. Step inside the main house to discover beautiful fir and oak floors, large vinyl windows, and an updated kitchen with granite countertops. Original architectural details shine in the classic doors and trim. The outdoor spaces offer seamless living with a peaceful backyard and two brand-new composite decks—one spacious deck off the main floor and a secluded deck for the 1-bedroom unit. The ground floor offers incredible versatility with income potential, featuring a separate studio unit and a 1-bedroom unit boasting its own separate address and separate electric meter. Each has its own independent entrance, yet both connect to the main house above to accommodate extended living. The studio can also be configured as a short-term rental or a place of business. Major assets include a large garage with an upper loft for storage or a work area, plus potential for a future DADU. Extensive functional upgrades include a fully replaced and relined sewer line. Enjoy effortless access to Green Lake Park's trails, local dining, and the Roosevelt Light Rail station. Buyer to verify all uses, SF, permits & DADU potential. Don't miss this opportunity
